

Haiku School Notes

The commencement exercises of the Haiku School were held at the Haiku Theater on Wednesday, June 30th. The program consisted of songs and recitations by the school children and school staff. The diplomas were presented to the graduating class by Mr. Baldwin who congratulated them on their success and the staff upon the community spirit which has been shown by the various activities which they have taken up during the last few years.

Mr. Baldwin also stated that Senator H. A. Baldwin had donated a tract of between two and three acres of land adjoining the present school grounds for a play ground and school garden. Swings and other play ground apparatus will be installed upon this land during the vacation.

The interesting address of Mr. Baldwin met with hearty applause from the large audience present.

Short addresses were also given by the principal of the Haiku School and the principal of the Pauwela Japanese school.

The much decorated members of the graduating class were then photographed.

Sueo Sato was presented with a check subscribed for by each of the members of the Haiku School staff as a token of the appreciation of the spirit of determination which he had shown in bringing his garden to a high state of productiveness in spite of several weeks of illness and other misfortunes.

Mr. Krauss of the Haiku experiment substation recently addressed the upper grades of the school regretting that by an oversight the judges had failed to visit the Haiku School garden during the Bulletin's Garden Contest.

He congratulated them on their previous successes in this respect. He then gave them a very interesting talk upon the necessity for American ideals to be expressed in the actual daily life and example of the pupils rather than by the repetition of mere formal statements.

Two dozen children of the school have been receiving half-pint bottles of milk from the experiment substation since last January. A comparison of the weights of these children at the beginning and at the end of the period, has invariably shown a considerable increase in weight during that time.

The principal of the school has been incapacitated from using his right hand for several days owing to a bad swelling due to a carbuncle.

Nearly a hundred children from the Haiku school have expressed their determination to work in the Haiku and Pauwela canneries during the vacation. Last year some of them by working overtime made over one hundred dollars during the vacation.

Three of the teachers are leaving this year and four more will arrive for next term; two of these will come from the Coast.

The Haiku teacher's cottage will be occupied during the vacation by Mr. Murphy, assistant supervising principal, who will be working in the Haiku cannery.

H. A. Wade of Haiku expects to leave for the Coast next week but if accommodation is not available for there he intends to go to the Orient for a vacation.

CANE CONTRACTS MADE BY WAIKAEA MEN FAIL TO RECEIVE APPROVAL

HILO, June 26—Several Waikaea homesteaders who have entered into a cane contract with Okinawas and Japanese from North Hilo plantations, especially Hakalau and Papaalou to cultivate and harvest their cane homestead lots on the basis of five to one, or five tons of sugar for the contractor and one ton for the homesteader, and who have forwarded their contracts to Commissioner of Public Lands C. T. Bailey and Governor C. J. McCarthy for their approval, have had them returned unapproved, reports the Hilo Tribune.

The homesteaders are wondering what to do in the matter as many of them prefer to give out their lands to contractors on the five to one basis and the contractors also assume all taxes besides operating expenses, and in some cases offer to make payments on the land.

With labor at $6 per day, as charged by the plantation men, many of the independents figure they would come cured and fed as hay or meal, it makes a splendid dairy feed. On a ten-days test at the Haiku Sub-Station several of the cows have increased 12 per cent in their milk yield when fed heavily podded pigeon pea hay as against an equal amount of dry matter in the form of Uba Cane and the best imported dairy feed concentrates. 250 head of breeding Aberdeen-Angus grade heifers have become rolling fat on 100 acres of pigeon pea pasture in 50 days feeding. Work mules do the heaviest kind of work on pigeon pea hay alone. It requires planting only once every three to five years.

Haiku Sub-Station Has Seed For Distribution

So long as the seed of the above pigeon pea and corn seed lasts, a pound will be sent to all applicants who agree to report upon the results of their trial.

Honolulu, T. H.
Gentlemen:

The Paige is no stranger to me: I purchased my first Paige in 1917. It gave such good service that when I learned your company was the local agent for the car I did not hesitate a moment when I decided to exchange for a new car, to place an order for another Paige.

Your service is all one could ask for.

I shall be pleased to recommend the Paige to anyone you may refer to me.

Yours very truly,

X. L. JAMES.

Gentlemen:

In making my purchase of a car I looked over the various makes, then bought the Paige as I believed it possessed more of the qualities that I wanted in a car. After using the car I saw no reason for changing my first impressions.

THE PAIGE

THE PAIGE MOTOR Car boasts of a beauty that is more than skin deep--- it is of a marked quality that reflects not only beautiful lines and lustrous finish, but solid goodness clear through to the very innermost heart of its mechanism.

The Paige mark therefore, is not only a beauty mark, but an emblem of goodness as well, and is so proclaimed by Paige owners in Honolulu.

The fact that the Paige is so distinctively fashioned that it unconsciously assumes its warranted leadership among cars, justifies all Paige owners in claiming and describing their car as

Gentlemen:

Just a word of praise about my Paige car which I purchased from you.

I find it very economical in gasoline, I am getting seventeen miles per gallon. It is also very light on tires as I have traveled over two thousand miles and my tires look as good as new.

Your service is satisfactory and I am well pleased in every respect.

Yours very truly,
